OLD BUSINESS

1. Clean Water Art Contest
 - a. The clean water art contest subcommittee finished the flyer for the event and began distributing it to local schools and art teachers. Submissions are due March 5 and winners will be announced March 12. There will be a winner picked by judges and a winner picked by popular vote with the public. Both will receive a $100 visa gift card. Other commissioners should share the flyer on their social media as well.
2. Coffee & Politics
 - a. The Coffee & Politics subcommittee invited a number of local government officials and have received confirmation from Mayor Resnikoff, Vice Mayor Bybee, Council member Gibbons, and Assembly member Evan Low. A flyer is being drafted and the location is still being determined.
3. South Bay Fun Fest
 - a. The south bay fun fest subcommittee met with cities of Cupertino and Saratoga to discuss more ideas for this event. There have not been many responses for performers and booths. More ideas from the commissioners was requested so that they could be invited soon.
4. YAC Attack
 - a. The YAC Attack conference is on March 26. All commissioners should let Liaison Pieracci know if they can make it so that she can register them. Several commissioners volunteered to lead a workshop for the conference including Maddon, Amelie, Anusha, Emily, Simone, Ada, and Carmen.
5. Safe Space
 - a. The library is unable to host in-person events for the next month or so. Commissioners were asked their opinion on whether or not they should put on one or two trial days before the start of summer. Many commissioners believed that two days would be better.
