1. Roll Call – After Vice-Chair Smith arrived, a quorum was reached. Roll call was taken at approximately 5:32 p.m.	• Noted.
2. Oral Requests: None.	• Noted.
3. East Campbell Avenue Plan Line Study: No update.	• Noted.
4. Receive Committee Staff Report: Staff reported that Vice Chair Smith and staff met at the junction of the Los Gatos Creek Trail and the newly opened Pruneyard Creek Trail to discuss wayfinding signs and chicane spacings. Staff answered questions regarding sign colors. Guide signs are green. Recreational signs are brown. The chicane spacings at the bottom of the hill (northern end) will increase to 12 feet apart (existing is six feet apart). The top of the hill (southern end) chicanes will be removed. The fences are approximately six feet wide. The BPAC asked about stenciling the bridges over the Los Gatos Creek Trail or adding a "Campbell Ave" sign facing eastbound trail users to help travelers know their location.	• Staff to follow up on stencils and wayfinding signs.
