CODE OF CONDUCT

The Campbell Recreation & Community Services would like you to enjoy athletic and wellness opportunities at the Community Center. In order to maintain a pleasant environment, the following responsibilities and rights have been implemented for all leagues and drop-in participants.

As courtesy to your fellow members, please:

- Display control, respect, dignity and professionalism to all involved in the sport, including athletes, opponents, staff, coaches, parents, officials, spectators, and all others.
- Refrain from any form of physical or verbal abuse towards athletes and others, including shoving, pushing, striking, "trash talking" or taunting any participant, official, agency representative, or spectator.
- Refrain from use of foul, offensive, or abusive language.
- Do not appear in, on or around the facility at any time under the influence or in possession of a controlled substance, or in an intoxicated condition.
- Do not use deliberately rough tactics during a game against the body and person of an opposing participant.
- Do not damage or deface Campbell Community Center athletic equipment or facilities.
- Wear proper apparel, including athletic shoes (NO flip-flops, sandals, boots or bare feet), shirts, sweatpants or shorts.
- Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of each and every person and treat each other equally within the context of the sport.
- All leagues are sanctioned by SANCRA, and the SANCRA Code of Conduct policies apply in the gym at all times (<http://sancrasouthbay.com/>).

Failure to abide by this Code of Conduct could result in a range of consequences, up to and including expulsion from the facility, forfeiture of fees, financial restitution for any damages, lifetime suspension, and felonious criminal charges.
